

GLOBAL JUSTICE CENTER NEWS UPDATE

After World War II, there was a human rights revolution that resulted in strong treaties and human rights laws. These laws are underscored by the recognition that there are rights so fundamental that they transcend borders and individual policies.

GJC was founded to move these laws from paper to practice.

Donald Trump's presidency will test this foundation of human rights law like never before. Our legal experts have spent years studying, researching and fighting for the enforcement of international law to build a global system of justice founded on gender equality. We are ready to fight back against whatever action Trump takes that threatens this rule of law.

Courage is contagious. Stand with us.

GJC's Latest News

NYC Women's March

Join the Global Justice Center for the NYC Women's March and Rally on Saturday, January 21. We look forward to marching with you on this historic day for women!

Read More

On the Inauguration of Donald Trump

Today, as Donald Trump is sworn in as the 45th President of the United States, it is important to remember that no one-and no country-is above the law.

Read More

Trump's Statements and International Law

On the campaign trail and over the course of his life, Trump has championed viewpoints that, if enacted as US President, would violate international law.

Read More

The Global Gag Rule

Trump is set to re-instate the Global Gag Rule in the next few days. See GJC's infographic explaining the differences between the Helms Amendment and the Global Gag Rule and what this means for women raped in war.

Read More

DONATE

