

GLOBAL JUSTICE CENTER NEWS UPDATE

Last week we saw pictures of men signing executive orders that negatively impacted the lives of women, minorities and vulnerable populations in the United States and around the world.

This week we saw pictures of women - judges, protesters, senators, congresspeople, and lawyers - leading the fight against these dangerous policies.

GJC's motto has always been, "when women have a say in governing, the world becomes a better place." Today, we are seeing how true that is.

GJC is fighting harder than ever. Stand with us.
