

In April, the United Nations contacted the Trump Administration and warned them that repealing the Affordable Care Act and leaving millions without health coverage would violate the US's legal obligations under international human rights treaties.

Yesterday, the Trump Administration and the US Congress ignored these warnings.

When governments fail to stand up for human rights it is up to the people and civil society to stand strong and speak up.

Stand with GJC and help us amplify our voice.

GJC's Latest News

GJC's First Podcast!

Every week GJC is sitting down with our international law experts and discussing the latest news under the framework of international law. Listen, rate and share with your friends!

Listen here

In the News

GJC was quoted in an article in Humansphere on Nikki Haley and the Trump Administration's "first ever" Security Council hearing dedicated exclusively to human rights.

Read More

The Irony of Trump

Read GJC's press release calling for the US to strengthen UN human rights bodies instead of subverting them, and to stop paying lip service to the UN while threatening its funding.

Read More

Strengthening the UN

Read GJC EU & UN Director Stephanie Johanssen's piece on the need to make sure the UN has the ability to address human rights violations wherever they occur.

Read More

Amazon Smile

Make GJC your featured charity on Amazon Smile and whenever you shop on Amazon use Amazon Smile and a portion of the proceeds will go to GJC.

Read More

DONATE

