The Trump Administration is feeling the pressure. All around the country people have been coming together and standing up to his dangerous policies, saying, "We won't go back."

Both at home and abroad, GJC knows that fighting back works.

GJC has been calling on the international community to take action in the face of ISIS's ongoing genocide against the Yazidi. This week it was announced that Germany has obtained an arrest warrant for a high-ranking ISIS commander for genocide and war crimes.
